We had a fantastic market today with excellent consignments and strong buyer participation, selling a total of 101 head. Packer cattle performed very well, with beef packer cattle seeing a strong increase in pricing compared to last week. Packer bulls also had a strong showing, maintaining solid demand, while packer dairy cows had a great market and saw an increase in prices.

Bred cows had a light test this week, but we did see some very nice pairs that performed exceptionally well, marking another increase from last week. Feeder cattle had a lighter showing, which didn't provide a good market test, but the quality remained solid. Among them, 5-weight heifers had the highest volume and saw an increase in pricing compared to last week.

Overall, it was a strong market with solid demand across several categories.

We appreciate the continued support from our consignors and buyers and look forward to keeping the momentum going.
